Description

cost to families dealing with poverty, homelessness, or disruption, reducing the distress felt by children and their parents. EBC expanded partnerships and services during COVID-19 to ensure that families most affected by the pandemic and economic fallout were assisted. Through partnerships with more than 70 human service organizations, schools, and health providers, more than 11,000 children and expectant moms were supported in 2020. Kids have the stress of living in poverty reduced, their healthy development promoted, and they are better prepared for success in school. Partner agencies can concentrate their resources and expertise on supporting families, increasing their opportunities for success. What EBC does reduces the community and societal inequities that prevent children from flourishing.
